Did You Know?

The 3 Watson-Brown Foundation Junior Boards (Thomson, Milledgeville, and Athens) are now responsible for over $1 million in historic preservation grants in Georgia since 2000!

WHY SHOULD YOU APPLY?

1. INTEREST IN PHILANTHROPY
2. INTEREST IN HISTORY OR HISTORIC PRESERVATION
3. INTEREST IN UNIQUE EXPERIENCES
4. OPPORTUNITY FOR REAL WORLD IMPACT
5. OPPORTUNITY TO MEET NEW PEOPLE

The Athens Junior Board generally meets one Wednesday night a month during the school year at the T.R.R. Cobb House to learn about historic preservation and philanthropy before examining grant proposals in the Spring semester.

Meetings are mandatory, except in cases cleared by the Advisor. Meetings may go virtual if necessary. Some weekend and after school time will be expected in March and April for site visits.
